To STAY in D.C. until January 20th?

I have no doubt that ~10,000,000 Patriots can show up for the 6th, but how feasible would it be to keep ~1,000,000 there at all times?

I think a presence of a million would be too much to even attempt to contain, but there's food/water distribution concerns, sleep schedules, and more.

Any way to organize something so large from a grassroots level?

Make sure those who presume to ignore your constitution have to walk through a wall of you to get to the heart of power.

Get there New Years day. Set up infrastructure for the rest to come. Set up barricades in concentric circles around the protest area. Dig in. Be good neighbours. Be clean and tidy. No rubbish. Those who can bring a portaloos. One is better than none. You are going to be photographed, this is a publicity exercise as much as it is anything. Do it right. Winter camping isn't fun. Wear layers. Bring supplies. Bring a walking stick. STAY DRY. Bring protest banners made of doors with shield handles on them.

Raise them on bars made of metal. You are the lawful. Do not be unlawful.

Barricades are RVs and trucks. Convoys are a must. If you aren't in one, join one. If you don't see one, start one.

We'll need the truckers, and the farmers. Those who've organised convoys before. Military types tend to know these things.

Which brings us to the lost important part. Discipline. If you're a ranking soldier it will be your job to organise. No squabbling, just getting shit done.

It'll be like a parade call after years of sleeping. Make sure you don't fall out of sequence.

The commies are surprisingly organised. Show them how Uncle Sam organises.

Luckily, we are ordered and organized.

We do not need vegan Frappuccino and eat organic mint chocolates and love me waffles 7 times a day.

We can survive on military rations, canned food. Sleep in tents (let's show them what an autonomous zone could theoretically work), with no crime and better hygiene than liberal hobos.

It's possible but problematic. Better to go all in for one day and wait for further orders.

Can someone please post some type of battle map of what area to park and where to avoid? I don't mind throwing down with some antifa but I sure as hell don't want to end up behind enemy lines

If u feel the need to keep 1 million there why not use the 10 million and solve the problem at that time?
